THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF

THE HOME FOR AGED MEN.

JANUARY, 1891.

As provided by the Corporation By-Laws, the undersigned, appointed for that purpose, respectfully submit the following review of the past year: —

The number of inmates Jan. 1, 1890, was		42
Died during the year, ...	3
Transferred to the list of outside beneficiaries, ...	1	4
Thereby reducing the number to . . .		38
Admitted during the year, ...		10
Total number Dec. 31, ...		48
The number of outside beneficiaries Jan. 1, 1890,		42
Died during the year, ...	4
Transferred by admission as inmates,	2	6
Thereby reducing the number to . . .		36
Added during the year, ...		6
Total number Dec. 31, ...		42

Pending the preparation of this report, the Committee on Admission has recommended for admission two more applicants; and, if at the next meeting of the Board that recommendation is adopted, the Home will be filled to its utmost capacity.

The Board has from time to time fixed a limit of expenditure for the aid of beneficiaries "at their own homes." The amount so expended has grown from $62 in 1861 to the sum of $7,418.75 the past year. As will be seen further on, the utmost allowance has been made consistent with the present income from invested funds.

These two facts, our inability to admit any others to the Home and our inability to aid any others "at their own homes," constitute an imperative call for more and larger gifts from those seeking to distribute their accumulations, and earnestly desirous of meeting in every possible way the necessities of a community in which by carefulness and wisdom they have been prospered. These suggestions deserve our attention at the very outset. If this favorite charity is to be continued with any hope of meeting the increasing demands upon it, additional funds must be obtained for such an increase of its income as will justify a very much larger list of beneficiaries.

The current expenses for the Home, as appears by the Treasurer's report, printed herewith, were $17,442.42; and $7,418.75 has been paid to outside beneficiaries. This last form of charity is certainly the best, however it may be viewed, which has been provided. The needs of a sorely straitened family are met, the moderate, but all the more tenderly loved home is preserved, and the wrench of sundering ties and associations of a lifetime has not to be endured.

The health of the inmates the past year has been unusually satisfactory. As already stated there have been but three deaths.

Samuel Edwards, admitted Jan. 6, 1886, died, after a somewhat prolonged illness, Jan. 7, 1890, aged 77 years.

John Wesley Neal, admitted April 21, 1879, died Jan. 19, 1890, aged 86 years.

Loring White Reed, admitted April 16, 1883, died Feb. 28, 1890, aged 86 years.

The additions during the year have been as follows:—

Alvin S. Lord,	admitted	April	21,	1890,	aged	70
John Hatchman,	"	"	"	"	"	74
Fitz Henry Price,	"	"	"	"	"	63
Henry Avery Kent,	"	"	"	"	"	81
James Wilson Jerauld,	"	"	"	"	"	72
George H. Boynton,	"	Oct.	20,	"	"	59
Calvin P. Hines,	"	"	"	"	"	73
John Freeman Foss,	"	"	"	"	"	67
Jacob Childs Dimick,	"	"	"	"	"	75
Augustus Miller Moore,	"	"	"	"	"	81

From the number of outside beneficiaries four have died:—

Ignatius S. Winter, admitted April 19, 1880, aged 70; died March 25, 1890.

Jesse W. Snow, admitted April 15, 1889, aged 68; died June 11, 1890.

Charles C. Nichols, admitted July 20, 1885, aged 70; died Oct. 26, 1890.

Thomas D. Johnson, admitted April 15, 1889, aged 82, died Nov. 18, 1890.

Two have been transferred into the Home:—

Henry A. Kent, aided out Oct. 15, 1888, transferred April 21, 1890, aged 79.

Jacob C. Dimick, aided out July 17, 1889, transferred Oct. 20, 1890, aged 74.

The additions to the list in the same time have been as follows:—

Spencer Russell,	aged	79
Albert Nickerson,	"	80
Dexter Munroe Walker,	"	73
Lucius Root Eastman,	"	80
James Bates,	"	65

and one, Alvin Samuel Lord, aged 70, has been transferred thereto from the Home.

The ages have been particularly given in every instance, to illustrate the fact that, as its name imports, it is, in the fullest sense, a Home for Aged Men.

Since its organization in January, 1861, — thirty years — the admissions have been one hundred and seventy-two, the average of whose ages has been a little more than seventy years. The average age of all those thus far dying at the Home has been seventy-seven years, and the average residence of the whole number admitted is something rising six years. The average age of all the present inmates is seventy-five and a half years. One, the oldest, is ninety-three; and another, the youngest, is a trifle below sixty.

In the same period of thirty years, one hundred and seventy-seven have been placed on the list of outside beneficiaries, whose average age was seventy-one years.

The following bequests are reported by the Treasurer: —

From the estate of	Elisha T. Loring, ...	$5,000.00
" "	Miss Elizabeth G. Kelly, ...	500.00
" "	Mrs. Grace H. Blanchard, ...	3,417.00
" "	John S. Fowler, ...	3,333.33

The Treasurer's report contains a voluntary donation, somewhat unusual, but all the more gratefully acknowledged.

All questions raised against the gift of certain property in McLean Street, this city, by the late Mr. Joshua Seward, have been finally and satisfactorily adjudicated.

It will be seen by the Treasurer's report that, while the income from invested funds has been $19,124.59, the total disbursements have been $29,635.44, or $10,510.85 in excess of the receipts.

While the applications favorably considered by the Directors number in all 349, the Committee have examined and reported on 635, besides a still further number so manifestly hopeless as to be voluntarily withdrawn without a report. These figures sufficiently indicate a difficulty which has been felt to some extent from the very beginning,— a misapprehension on the part of many as to the exact design and precise scope of the work undertaken. In many of the annual reports this subject has been somewhat discussed, but somehow or other never so exhaustively as to make upon the public a clear and decided impression. The result has been that we are still constantly receiving applications for assistance from those who are needy enough, but whose previous condition and associations have not been such as contemplated by the founders of this Home.

In determining what recommendations they should properly make to the Board of Directors on applications, whether for admission to the Home or for outside aid, the Committee on Admission will keep in mind the special purpose for which this charity has been provided.

It is for the relief of those "who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application," who have seen "better days,"— those who, having occupied more or less prominent positions in business, professional, or social life, have enjoyed better surroundings, and a better than ordinary manner of living; who have contributed toward the support of law and order and the general welfare of this community; and who have also by personal efforts as well as by their means helped others.

Such have fairly earned for themselves special consideration and care, when, overtaken by the feebleness of age, the loss of property, kindred, and friends, they are compelled to ask for help.

Mr. Salisbury, President of the Corporation, died at his home in Leominster, after a brief illness, on August 18th. Painstaking and devoted, his long connection with the Home — since 1871 — gave him the knowledge and the ability to direct its affairs with marked success. At the first meeting of the Board of Managers thereafter, appropriate notice was taken of the event, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: —

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. D. Waldo Salisbury, our late President, which has occurred since our last meeting, the Home has sustained a great loss.

As President for six, and Director for nearly a score of years, for thirteen of which he was on the Committee on Admission, we desire to testify to, and place upon our record, our hearty appreciation of his sincere, earnest, and unselfish interest in all that pertained to the welfare of the Home, and his punctual and faithful attention to every duty connected with its management which he was called upon to perform.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate this slight tribute to the family of Mr. Salisbury, and assure them of our sympathy in the loss which they have sustained.

Special acknowledgments are due to those who in various ways have sought to edify, entertain, or benefit the inmates of the Home.

To those clergymen who have so cheerfully conducted services at the Home; to

Miss Alice May Joy, who with several younger members of the Shawmut Universalist Church has furnished the music on those occasions; to

Rev. Mr. Waldron for a share in the Fresh Air Fund; to

Mr. C. F. Williams for frequent opportunities to enjoy harbor trips on the steamer "New York"; to

The King's Daughters, from the First Baptist Church, the Working Girls' Club, of 401 Shawmut Avenue, members of the Boston School of Oratory, members of the Conservatory of Music, for various entertainments at the Home; to Dr. G. H. Peirce for gratuitous dental services.

And for a large number of articles furnished, a complete list of whose donors will be found on page 30.

The undisturbed and satisfactory condition of the family has been largely due to the considerate and cheerful management of the Superintendent, Miss K. A. Malloy.

the comfort and happiness of the inmates. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-Laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.
